Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust

The Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust, a registered 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, is dedicated to providing essential services to underserved community members across Philadelphia's five-county area. This mission is realized through a series of fundraising events and initiatives. Originally known as "The Laborer's District Council Charity Fund" until 2011, the charity underwent a name change to pay tribute to Samuel Staten, Sr. This decision was made to honor the memory of Mr. Staten, Sr. who established the LDC Charity Fund through a truly selfless act of charity during his tenure as Business Manager of Laborers' Local 332 and Secretary Treasurer of the Laborers' District Council of the Philadelphia Metropolitan Area and Vicinity. Even though we tragically lost our esteemed founder, affectionately known as "The Boss," in 2016, the Board of Directors remains steadfast in their commitment to carry on in his name and memory. The Trust's primary objective is to continue raising funds to support a diverse array of charitable organizations.

The Qaid Staten Memorial Scholarship Fund is specifically designated to assist qualified students in their educational endeavors by providing educational scholarships to students in need. The Qaid Staten Memorial Charity Fund was established after a Perry N. Blackman (long time union auditor and coordinator of the annual fundraising golf events) and his family generously made a $10,000 donation in memory of Qa'id Staten to an educational institution of Qa'id's father, Samuel Staten, Sr.'s choice. Mr. Staten chose to instead use the generous contribution to establish the Qaid Staten Memorial Charity Fund, a charity fund within the Samuel Staten, Sr. Charitable Trust with the mission of enabling disadvantaged, deserving students to seek higher education and perpetuate Qa'id's legacy. Qa'id Staten, the youngest son of Samuel Staten, Sr., Business Manager Laborers' Local 332, was murdered just months before he was to attend Howard University. In his memory, The Qaid Staten Memorial Scholarship Fund's mission is to work to help defray the costs of tuition, books and housing of the sons and daughters of the members of the Laborers' District Council who would not be able to attend these institutions without some form of monetary assistance.
